Office note.

No 9. 467 & 22/3/04

The Senior Surgeon has now submitted for the approval of Govt a draft of the Covenant to be executed by this Govt Stipendiary pupils now studying in the Royapuram Medical School at Madras, and by those that are to be admitted hereafter.

He also requests early orders be passed Medical Pupil Loganathan referred to in his No 789 16-8-03, and 3rd class Hospital Apptt. Madaru Kban referred to in para 5 of his No 424 & 22-5-03.

*Copy put up.

Perusal is solicited of the last 3 lines of para 3 of the draft Covenant.

The Govt of Madras having recently directed the non-recognition of the pre collegiate Course by adding on one more year to the Collegiate Course from 3 to 4 years, the words "pre collegiate and" may, if approved, be omitted in the last line of para 4 of the draft Covenant, so far as the Students from 1903 are concerned.

Senior Surgeon's letter No. 789 16-8-03, on which early orders have been now asked for, is the file upon which the revival of the practice of obtaining bonds from the Medl Pupils Pupils was ordered by Govt in their orders of the 1st Febry. 1904.

No separate orders seem therefore required on it now.

In his other letter (para 5 of letter No 4248 of 22-5-03), upon which also he now asks for early orders, the Senior Surgeon reported that the 3rd class Hospital Aplt Madarabkhan left the service without permission, and took up service with Messrs Wee Bin & Co, Shipowners, Singapore, and that he would make a separate report to Govt regarding the result of his case.

No such report has yet been received from the Senior Surgeon and what orders he wants in this case is also not clear. In his present letter he reports that the whereabouts of this Hospital Aplt are not known.

Submitted ~~for orders~~.
with a statement shewing in full the position. the form prescribed by the late Chief Commr & that now proposed by the Senior Surgeon. The latter may be approved & draft letter drafted.

The amount spent by Govt on his behalf cannot be enforced from him. No agreement was taken from him before he was admitted as a Stipendiary Student. As he has served for 2 years and has been a private student in the last year of his course, the stipend may be discontinued from the end of the current month & he may be informed accordingly & asked to refund the amount spent on his behalf. (Vide C. To of 16-8-03)

Under the rules Govt can discontinue the stipend & the Govt would not be called upon to refund the amount.

It also binds him not to leave the service without sanction, and should he do so, his liability extends only to the refund of the amount of stipend received by him as a Med. Pupil. The form now prescribed by the Senior Surgeon ~~is more exhaustive~~ appears to be more exhaustive in all the particulars. It binds the Medical Pupil (a) to serve Govt for 7 years from date of pass (b) not to leave service without Govt sanction (c) and should he do so, to refund the amount of stipend or pay received by him; ~~If approved "or both" may be added after "or pay" in para 2 of the draft (the whole amount of stipend or pay or both)~~ (d) to serve as Passed Med Pupil, till he is promoted to the grade of Hospl Apntte, 3d class. by students now undergoing tuition in the Medical School at Madras under the old Curriculum. 10
In this Case, the Govt order of the 1st Febry 1904 will have retrospective effect given to it.

By implication, an Hospl Asstt may, after serving Govt for 7 years, leave the service without Govt sanction and he will not be liable to any penalty by so doing, except forfeiture of past service.
